

How to tie a reef knot

A reef knot is much stronger than the one we use to tie our shoelaces because it adds an extra half turn. It was commonly used by sailors hence the maritime name.

1. Cross the yellow and the white ends

2. Pass the white end over the yellow end

3. Pass the white end through the yellow loop

4. Tighten up the ends to complete the reef knot