Start by taking a stroll around the working fishing harbour of West Bay
West Bay Discovery Centre has lots of interesting displays about the history of the harbour past and present, and the people who live and work here; check it out if you can!
From West Bay pier, take the coast path Westwards up the hill towards Seatown. From there, you will descend into the beautiful Eype Beach, where you can stop for a paddle!
Briar Cliff Coastal Hut

Stop to admire the interesting Briar Cliff Coastal Hut (featured in period drama Broadchurch), which overlooks Eype Beach.
Follow the coast path westwards up to Thorncombe Beacon; it’s a tough climb, but you will be rewarded with beautiful panoramic views of the Jurassic Coast.
From Thorncombe Beacon, descend into Seatown, where you can stop for a rest at the beach, or a well-earned drink at The Anchor Inn.

If you want to continue the walk further, carry on West up to Golden Cap, the highest peak on the Jurassic Coast.

Once you are rested, take the road North towards Chideock.
Catching the bus back to West Bay

Once you reach Chideock, you can take the Jurassic Coaster bus back to West Bay via Bridport.

Once you have returned to West Bay, why not take a wander around the harbour, out to the end of the pier?
